filed his final account showing the estate to be insolvent. Attorney George W. Baker, on behalf of Mrs. Walker, objected to allowing the final account, alleging that the administrator and his brother Gilbert had conspired to defraud the creditors of the estate, by withdrawing $2,000 from the bank.

Judge Elisworth intimated that the proper remedy would be for the administrator to bring suit against his brother Gilbert for the recovery of the $2.000. Attorney Baker suggested that the Administrator would hardly proceed against his own brother, and for that reason asks his removal.

The members of the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian Church gave a paper social last night in the Town Hall. The affair was one of the most interesting and unique entertainments of its kind ever presented in San Leandro. It was attended by large number of young people and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The library quarters although larger than the old rooms are still too small, owing to the rapid increase in the circulation and the number of volumns auspices of which the social was given are highly gratified at the success of the occasion. They had worked for some time in preparing for an interesting affair and their labors were not in vain.

HE GETS A PENSION.

John Hetherington, a former resident of San Leandro, and who is one of the best known pioneer settlers of this district, has just been granted a pension by the Government. Hetherington served with distinction through the War of the Rehellion, and his many friends in San Leandro were pleased to learn of his good fortune in securing the pension. He is now residing at lakeport.

Chief of Police Hodgkins has been asked to locate Lorenz Korzendorfer, who left St. Louis about a year ago and who has now fallen heir to an estate of $20,000. It is believed that the missing heir was a resident of this city a short time ago. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—The although the name does not appear in famous Richelieu saloon at the corner of Market and Kearny streets, direct-Athur E. Krammerer, an attorney of St. Louis, and is as follows:

"S. C. Hodgkins, Chief of Police, Oakland, Calif.—Dear Sir: Some years ago a man by the name of Lorenz Korzendor-fer left St. Louis and located in San Francisco. I am informed that for a time he tician and sporting referee, will be associated with Mr. Flannery in the the name of Lawrence Bartlett or Barrett. His relatives here in St. Louis las heard from him about a year ago, when his address was given as No. 70 Ninth strect, San Francisco, Calif. A number gauge boats. ceipt of a letter in which he advises me that a family by the name of Barrett formerly dived at No. 70 Ninth street, but recently moved to your city, locating on Adeline street, number not given.

"My purpose in writing you this letter is this: Mr. Korzendorfer's brother Bernard Korzendorfer died in this city some time ago, leaving a considerable estate in which Lorenz is interested to the extent of about $20,000. If we can find him, or if he is dead, his heirs will be entitled to this inheritance. I would be obliged to you, therefore, If you will give this matter such publicity as lies in your power and advise me whether Korzendorfer or Bartlett or Barrett, as he was subsequently known, lives in Oakland or if he has died within the last year, whether or nor he left a widow or children.

"A reply to this inquiry at your convenience will greatly oblige, yours very truly, "ARTHUR E. KRAMMERER."

SINKS FORTUNE MADE IN MINES

FELIX CHAPPELLET PUTS BACK IN THE GROUND THE GOLD HE TOOK FROM IT.

After having made and lost several fortunes in mining, it was the lot of Felix Chappellet, the pioneer mining man, who for the last forty years has been promi-nently identified with California's mineral industry, to die almost a poor man. From a petition for the probate of his will pleayesterday it is shown that the deceased had on hand nearly 100,000 shares of worthless mining stock. In a portion of the will the testator pathetically acknowledges that the fortunes he dug from the ground went back into it. This section of the will reads as follows:

"I devise to my wife, Milvia Chappellet, all my interests in any mining corporation or oil corporation; also all my rea estate and personal property. This I do because unfortunate circumstances have made us lose most of my fortune. My children are now married, or able to take care of themselves. I consider the little I am now owning ought to go to my beoved wife, who anyhow is the owner of half of what I have."

The deceased was in his seventy-third year when he made his will. He had pear when he hade his well. He had provided liberally for two daughters at their marriages.

Felix Chappellet Jr., the son, is named as the executor, the mother having renounced her right to act as such.

The son is now engaged in mining enterprises in one of the northern counfies.

Clean-up of Used SOON START ON TRYOUTS IN Pianos and Organs

A MEMORABLE SHARING OF BENEFITS BETWEEN KOHLER & CHASE AND OUR PUBLIC.

Perhaps the one point of least success about a conservative high-class piano store is the disposition of its used instruments. And in such a large, healthy, constantly growing business as that of Kohler & Chase there is sure to be found an unusually large number of pianos and organs that have been mittee of the Merchants' Exchange of tho of a debating team were held.

The subject debated upon was "

The subject debated upon was " exchange for the superb Knabe, Fischer and Kohler and Chase Pinnos.

We have too many of such instruments in stock, and, coupled with the fact that during the month of September only, the railroads have made a special rate on pianos in carloads of almost one-half the regular rate, we are crowding through all the pianos we can in order to take advantage of this rate, and we must make room for them.

The presenting of such an offering as this today is one of the crowning achievement for the public benefit that have come to our experience in the piano business. The list of instruments is probably the largest and finest ever offered anywhere underprice, and

By doing this you have everything to gain—you have absolutely nothing to lose.

"The recent Republican Convention that met in Sacramento was composed of $20 members—men chosen from every precinct in this great State. They assembled in convention at Sacramento to represent the citizens of the State at large and the voters of their respective districts in particular. There was not a single proxy in the convention, and therefore the premier at the convention through their own particularly selected delegate, the authorized mouthplece of his own vicinity. They did their duty well. They made up a ticket that their masters—the people who sent that their masters—the people have send to the people for the best interests of the people, and the people have made no mistake.

DR. GEORGE C. PARDEE.

"Our standard bearer, Dr. George C. Pardee—a man who bousts that he sprung from the common people—who is proud of the fact that his honored father was a workman—who himself has reason to be proud that he is now in the meridian of life—in the zenith of his manhood; that he has climbed high on the ladder of professional fame; that he has intelligence, energy, fortitude and physical manhood; and that the people of his own community in particular, and those of the State in general, know him to be an upright, just and honorable man, possessing all the qualifications necessary to make a Governor who will deal fairly with all—giving the State an honorable, creditable, vigorous and economical administration.

SUPREME COURT. SUPREME COURT.

"The nominees for the Supreme Court have been selected from the very best material obtainable, and are so well and favorably known throughout the State that further comment is unnecessary.

CHARLES F. CURRY.

"Secretary of State Charles F. Curry's administration is conceded to be the best in the history of the State. Mr. Curry caused a bill to be passed by the Legislature relative to foreign corporations, the apparatum of which has been the CHARLES F. CURRY. Secretary of State Charles F. TRUMAN REEVES.

"State Treasurer Truman Reeves also ceived a re-nomination by acclamation, mrade Reeves served with honor and distinction in the Sixth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, attrached to the Army of the Potomac. Comrade Reeves participated in most of the battles fought by the Army of the Potomac up to the time of the battle of Cold Harbor, in which engagement he lost an arm. Do not forget your old comrade.

T. J. KIRK.

"Superintendent of Public Instruction is one of the most important offices in the State government—one that should have extended experience—yet, for some mexplained reason, no incumbent of the office has received a re-nomination for period of twenty-five years. The present nomines, who is the incumbent, broke the state and was re-nominated, breaking the state and was re-nominated, breaking the T. J. HON, GEORGE C. PERKINS.

"Next in importance to the election of Governor is the election of Congressmen and a United States Senttor—the latter is by far the most important. Our senior Senator, George C. Perkins, whose term will soon expire, should be returned. Mr. Perkins is a conscientious Republican. He is in accord with the administration. He is watchful of and loyal to California s interests. His experience in the upper house of Congress has made him very valuable to this State. No new man—be he ever so bright and energetic, ever so willing and persistent—could possibly do as much for the interest of this State as Senator George C. Perkins.

"Congressman E. F. Loud of the Fifth District is a veteran of the Civil War. He is said to be the hardest worker in the lower house. For the benefit of the entire State, he should be returned.

"I am to handle Herrera in this fight. I shall condition him and superintend the work in his corner and he will be an altogether different man when he faces Attell. I know my boy can fight and I am sure he will win. If he loses it will be the fifth losing fight I was ever interested in and I have been in the business close to thirteen years. Who has ever beat Herrera guidle of Terry McGovern? Look at CURE SIOK HEADAGHE.
